A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

The Herald is in the highest respect a Famthe neraid is in the inglest respect a rain-ily Newspaper, devote to the material in-terests of the people of this County and the State. It circulates extensively, and as an advertising medium offers unrivalled ad-vantages. For Terms, see first page.

Card.

My connection with the HERALD ceases with this issue. As Editor I have tried to do my duty to the public and to the paper. My work has often been laborious, but nover irksome. My relations with the publisher have been friendly at all times, and in parting from him and the HERALD I wish for them both continued prosperity.

W. H. WALLACE. This severance of the relation existing between Mr. Wallace and the HERALD, it is but right to state, is pure ly a business transaction, he intending shortly to engage in journalism on his own account. We regret his leaving furnish the average reader with a fair us, as our association together has been of the pleasantest and most satisfactory character. THOS. F. GRENEKER.

The President of the United States of Colombia, Senor Zaldus, died at Baga on the 22d inst. The Vice-President has resumed the Presidency.

The country confidently looks to Congress to create a good civil service law, and the people are not in a temper to stand a great deal of fooling about it.

The closing sentence in our Columbia letter last week read, "There's the rat." Now, lest some suspecting party might think we had been too much at Branigan's and was seeing "varmints," we explain that the rat should have been "the rub."

The Legislature adjourned Friday. The only laws of much importance passed were the Rail Road Law and the amendment to the Usury Law. A large amount of business was postponed until next session, for the purpose of having a short session. The Lien Law and the Stock Law stand as they were.

Merchants in Newberry and Columbia, and probably elsewhere, complain bia, and probably elsewhere, complain Chimney Corner, "Harper's Bazar, of dull trade. It is thought that many Godey's Lady's Book, monthly. have held on to their money in order to be prepared in case of the repeal of the Lien Law. Now, that it is known that the Law has not been disturbed probably money will flow more freely.

A bar-room quarrel at Covington, Ga., resulted, on the 24th, in the shooting to death of a white and colored man by Will Smith.

S. S. Lewellen, Mate of the packet Falcon, at Memphis, was shot and mortally wounded by a negro, on the same day.

Wm. Vaughn shot and mortally wounded two brothers named Boone, great grandsons of Daniel Boone, of Kentucky fame, in Texas, same day, the result of a trivial dispute.

Good Advice.

You will prevent and cure the greater part of the ills that afflict man kind in this or any section, if you keep your stomach, liver and kidneys in perfect working order. There is no medicine known that does this as surely as Parker's Ginger Tonic. It will keep your blood rich and pure, and give you good health at little cost. See other column.

The January number of the Eclectic begins a new volume, and has as a frontispiece a finely-executed steel engraving, entitled 'The Wedding-Day.' The table of contents embraces a great variety of interesting articles. The continued story was completed in the December number. In the present The Story of James Barker: a Tale of the Congo Coast,' and 'The Undergraduate's Aunt,' by F. Anstey, author of 'Vice Versa.' Other readable and valuable articles are: 'The Menacing Comet,' by Richard A. Proctor; 'Some

Aspects of American Public Life,' by James Bryce; 'Modern Miracles,' by Richard F. Clarke, of the Society of Jesus; 'Two Years After.' by Joseph Truman; 'Miss Edgeworth;' 'Shake-speare on Death;' 'Our Origin as a Species,' by Richard Owen, C. B., F. R. S.; 'Sketches from the Dutch Sea-'Resemblances in Literature; Husband to his Wife; 'Mrs. Kemble's Reminiscences; 'Atoms, Molecales, and Ether Waves,' by Professor Tyndall; 'Shooting Niagara Falls,' a strange story; 'European Life in Egypt;' and 'Lift Thine Eyes.' The Editorial Departments are well filled and interesting, and comprise Literary Notices, Foreign Literary Notes, Science and Art, and Miscellany. Those of our readers who wish a magazine to instruct them, and who desire to keep pace with the current literature of the world cannot do better than subscribe to this periodical with the commencement of the new volume which this number begins. Is composed of Herbal and Musilaginous products, which permeate the substance of the Lungs, expectorates the aerid matter that collects in the Bronchial Tubes, and forms a soothing coating, which relieves the irrification that causes the cough. It cleanses the lungs of all impurities, strengthens them when enfeebled by disease, invigorate the circulation of the biood, and braces the nervous system. Slight colds often end in consumption. It is dangerous to neglect them. Apply the remedy promptly. A test of twenty years warrants the assertion that no remedy has ever been found that is as prompt in its effects as IUIT'S ENETISRANT. A single dose raises the phiegm, subdues inflammation, and its use speedly cure the most obtinate cough. A pleasant cordial, children take it readily.
